

LOCALLY SPEAKING

LOWER KING & BAYONET HEAD PROGRESS ASSOCIATION

NEWSLETTER: NOVEMBER 2016

LAST MEETING HIGHLIGHTS

- Guest speakers Liz Tanner and Brynn gave a most interesting talk about their work in bringing oysters back to Oyster Harbour. They are having success in providing an environment for the oysters to regrow.
- Cllr Anthony Moir spoke about the planned move of the visitor centre to the all existing office bearers renominated for their positions unopposed. A new committee member Michael Gardiner was elected and welcomed as additional support to the Association.

NEXT MEETING: Monday 21st November, at Gomm Park Hall, Lower King.
6pm Meet & Greet 6.30 Guest Speaker 7pm General Meeting

GUEST SPEAKER FOR NOVEMBERS MEETING

Iris Thomas from the Department of commerce and consumer protection.

- The presentation Iris will give includes.
- Retail rights
- retirement housing
- scams
- Signing contracts.

This will be a most interesting presentation given the content and continuing instances of scams and people getting caught from unscrupulous business providers.

DEVELOPMENTS AT BAYONET HEAD SHOPPING CENTRE

Julia Kelly of Porters has been appointed to further develop the shopping centre by encouraging new tenants. Julia is a well-respected local leasing and marketing consultant.

Julia has stressed the importance of maximizing the shopping centres potential by encouraging local residents to shop at the centre. The better the centre is patronized by residents the more chance of attracting additional businesses to open in the centre. There are ongoing enquiries for future development of the centre.

Two new businesses have recently opened at the centre.

NewsXpress

proprietors are Carla Onions and Frank Cuscuna who are pleased to offer a newsagency to local residents. They have been expanding their stock since opening with friendly service this will be a welcome addition to the shopping centre.
